
High in the sky

A NEW STAIRWAY has been added to the Camas Public Library. The remodeling project is two thirds done, according to one worker. The extensive remodeling will increase usable space in the library and enable it to meet building and fire codes. Woodbilt Construction Co. of Vancouver is the general contractor for the project.